RULES BOOK

Last Update Dec 2017

RESPECT

Firstly and Foremost I'd like to point out that our first rule as a Community is to ensure respect for different people and perspectives!

Well being of everyone in the community and fun are our goals here. For that to be ensured we need to establish some ground points:

NO RACISM

1. No Racism of any type will be accepted or allowed. NONE! (like social class, color, gender, religion, sexual preferences, etc...)

* Members who don't oblige this rule will be instantly kicked!

2 WARNINGS RULE

2. We know that as a community discussions are bound to happen, that's normal and even expected. But if that escalates, commanders will take action to give a formal warning. At the second warning the member in question will be expelled!

*Members who don't oblige this rule will be instantly kicked!

2 WARNINGS RULE FOR UNDERAGE

3. For People under 16 years old the 2 warning rule will be replaced by an analysis of the situation in question by a Commander or Commanders.

NO PORN

4. Porn sharing is not allowed, our clan has underage people!

*Members who don't oblige this rule will be instantly kicked!

NON CONSENTING STREAM

5. Video/Audio streaming without the consent of the people involved will be lead to a formal warning! Talk to your friends, they probably will be happy to participate on your channel.

*Members who don't oblige this rule will be formally warned!

NO CLICK-BAITS

6. Click baits or any video/audio or any troll behavior will be strictly prohibited.

*Members who don't oblige this rule will be instantly kicked!

OUR SUPPORT CHANNELS

We're a guild that takes respect as a very important matter. Everyone needs to be safe and happy here. If you have any concerns or problems towards a person or a specific issue that is troubling you, then please contact our Audit channel at:
